

POST ADOPTION SUPPORT SERVICES

The Michigan Family Independence Agency provides Regional Post Adoption Support Services (PASS) for families who have adopted children from a state foster care program. Sometimes adoptive families may experience problems as their children grow and have difficulty finding the supportive services they need. The Regional PASS Centers, developed with the input of adoptive parents, will provide and assist adoptive families in locating support services in their community.

POST ADOPTION SERVICES PROVIDED

- Crisis intervention services for families who lack other resources.
- Information and referral services.
- Coordination of community services; trained professionals will assist families in applying for community services.
- Development of community-based recreation and training programs.
